

ELECTRONIC MAIL AND INTERNET USAGE POLICY

Electronic Mail and internet facilities (hereinafter referred to as “the Resources”) are provided as a service to the employees to facilitate communications on business endeavours, and to promote information sharing and effective value addition. This includes the ability to communicate and collaborate with individuals outside Wipro Limited. The following policy aims to establish responsibilities and requirements for the effective use of the Resources and related information infrastructure.

This policy applies to all employees, including project students, temporary/casual employees, contract personnel and consultants, who use, design operate, have access to, or are responsible for Wipro Limited computer resources and/or data contained therein. (Hereinafter referred to as ‘employees’).

These terms and conditions govern the employees’s usage of the Resources. The employee is requested to read them carefully before usage of the Resources. These terms and conditions will be deemed to have been accepted on usage of the Resources.

1. Wipro encourages the use of the Resources and respects the privacy of the employees. It does not wish to inspect or monitor electronic mail routinely or to be the arbiter of its content. Nonetheless, electronic mail and data stored on the Wipro’s networks of computers may be accessed by Wipro for the following purposes :
 - a. troubleshooting hardware and software problems,
 - b. preventing unauthorized access and system misuse,
 - c. retrieving business related information,
 - d. investigating reports of violation of the Corporate policy or Law
 - e. complying with legal requests for information,
 - f. rerouting or disposing of undeliverable mail OR
 - g. any other purpose that Wipro may deem fit.
2. Employees should be aware that, in addition to being subject to authorized access, electronic mail in its present form cannot be secured and is, therefore, vulnerable to unauthorized access and modification by third parties. Employees are responsible to keep their passwords secure.
3. Receivers of electronic mail documents should check with the purported, sender if there is any doubt about the identity of the sender or the authenticity of the contents, as they would with print documents.
4. The employee shall not use the Resources for any kind of personal, or non-business purposes or purposes incidental to them. ‘Business purpose’ herein shall refer to valid business purposes that can be used to improve the products and services provided by Wipro Limited.
5. The employees shall not use the resources for unauthorised purposes. Unauthorised purpose in relation to use of the electronic mail facility shall include but not be limited to;
 - (i) Use of the Resources in connection with surveys, contests, chain letters, junk e-mail, spamming, or any duplicative or unsolicited messages.
 - (ii) Defame, abuse, harass, stalk, threaten or otherwise violate the legal rights or others.
 - (iii) Publish, distribute, or disseminate any inappropriate, profane, defamatory, infringing, obscene, indecent or unlawful material.
 - (iv) Transmit or upload any material that contains viruses, trojan horses, worms, time bombs, or any other harmful or deleterious programs.
 - (v) Forwarding or sending messages that have racial or sexual slur, political or religious solicitations, or any other message that is inappropriate and/or has the potential to cause Wipro harm or embarrassment.

6. Unauthorised purpose in relation to use of internet resources shall include but not be limited to, access or pornographic and other illegal web site. In the event of it coming to the notice of IMG or any other authorised person that an employee has been indulging in such unauthorised use of the resources, with or without intention, he/she will be subject to summary dismissal or termination of services.
7. The employees shall not indulge in unlawful activities such as accessing unauthorised Resources, hacking, introducing any computer contaminant or computer virus, committing acts which disrupt use of the Resources or aiding or abetting any of the above.
8. The employees acknowledge that their misuse of the Resources may result in the violation of intellectual property rights or their parties, and they shall adhere ensure that all proprietary material used by them have been obtained through valid licenses from the suppliers or proprietors.
9. All non-public information which is rightfully obtained, developed, or produced by or for the company and/or its workers for the benefit of the company and which if improperly released would have a negative impact on the company is to be safeguarded. The employees acknowledge that their misuse of the Resources may result in the breach of confidentiality with relation to Wipro or third parties, and they shall adhere to all confidentiality and restriction of publicity obligations they are bound by within Wipro and to third parties.
10. When personal opinions are expressed on the Internet or any other media by an employee indicating their affiliation with Wipro, a statement indicating that the opinions are personal should be made such as 'the opinions expressed here are my personal opinions and not necessarily those of Wipro Limited.'
11. The employees shall adhere to the following network security requirement;
 - a. Use of network resources should be limited to authorized users for authorised purposes only.
 - b. All Network connections must be approved and installed only by the Information Management Group (IMG) personnel.
 - c. Users shall not change configurations on the company network unless authorised by IMG.
 - d. Internet Protocol (IP) Address are assigned only by IMG and use of duplicate IP Address is considered non-compliance.
 - e. Users shall refrain from using company communications facilities to access for which they are not explicitly authorized.
 - f. Access to internal networks from external networks and dial-out capabilities also be adequately safe guarded.
12. Violations of these terms governing the use of the Resources will result in restriction of access to the Resources in addition to any disciplinary action that may be applicable under the Corporate policies, guidelines or implementing procedures, up to and including dismissal or termination of employment.
13. The employee hereby agrees to indemnify and hold Wipro harmless for any loss, damage or liability suffered by Wipro due to a violation of these terms governing the use of the Resources or any breach of the Information Technology Act, 2000.

Read, Accepted and Signed.

Name ^{Madhu Koilakonda}

Employee Number ²⁰⁶⁵²⁵⁹⁷

Signature